On the occasion of the 2015 Dubai International Boat Show, Glomex, the leader in manufacturing marine antennas, has increased its presence in the Middle East by appointing a new distributor in the EAU: D1 Marine LLC.

D1 Marine LLC, based in Dubai, has grown in committing itself in providing with Marine Safety, Services and State-Of-The Art Equipment Worldwide. Its network expands all over the Middle East with well-established branches, since its foundation in 2001.

“Dubai and all the Middle East are very important for Glomex sales growth as this area has great potentialities and they are another exciting challenge that we want to win as always” Piero Baldassarri, President of Glomex, says “We are very happy to establish this commercial partnership. D1 Marine is an important actor on the M.E. marine equipment market and we are proud that our products are shown on its booth during the Dubai International Boat Show”.
